

Syllabus Report (SYL)

CorePass® Dog Bite Prevention

7014:2024

Generated At: Monday, August 25, 2025

IQF Level	3	IQF Credit	1
Approved References	Dog Bites: A Multidisciplinary Perspective 1st Edition (Mills & Westgarth, 2017) American Veterinary Medical Association website US Centre for Disease Control (CDC) website, World Health Organization (WHO) website.
Special Notes

Understand and apply dog bite prevention laws, victim rights, and penalties for non-compliance.	701424D1
--	----------

Performance	Understand and apply dog bite prevention laws, victim rights, and penalties for non-compliance.
Standards	In accordance with local laws and ordinances.
Conditions
Comments

Identify key factors that contribute to dog bites	701424D2
--	----------

Performance	Identify and recall the key factors that contribute to dog bites, such as breed behavior tendencies, common triggers for aggression, and the importance of spaying/neutering in reducing aggression
Standards	In accordance with approved references or official government advice.
Conditions
Comments

Explain and interpret dog body language and vocal cues	701424D3
---	----------

Performance	Explain the significance of canine body language and vocal cues in predicting dog behavior, and interpret these signs to understand a dog's emotional state and intentions
Standards	In accordance with approved references or official government advice.
Conditions
Comments

Demonstrate correct methods for approaching and interacting with dogs	701424D4
--	----------

Performance	Demonstrate the correct methods for approaching and interacting with dogs, including how to behave when encountering a stray dog and the steps to take if a dog becomes aggressive, to minimize the risk of being bitten.
Standards	In accordance with approved references or official government advice.
Conditions
Comments

Performance	Examine case studies of dog bite incidents to identify what went wrong and what could have been done differently, using knowledge of dog behavior and prevention techniques to critically evaluate each situation.
Standards	In accordance with approved references or official government advice.
Conditions
Comments	